5TH DISTRICT COMMUNITY PROSECUTION UPDATE

Safety Tips for the Holiday Season. The Second District Community Prosecution team urges residents to be proactive in combating crime during the holidays. Following these simple rules can help to ensure your safety during the holidays:

- Plan your shopping in advance. Avoid carrying multiple credit cards. Plan purchases.
- Travel in groups. Deter someone from targeting you. Friends can help you carry your bags!
- Keep wallet or purse secured. Don't place on counter or in basket. It only takes a second for someone to walk away with it.
- Park in well lit places. Be mindful of your surroundings when traveling to and from your car.
- Protect your personal information. After the holidays, be sure to tear up and mark out mail order forms, invoices, receipts containing credit card numbers and lettering on boxes.

The COURT REPORT

James Richardson III, 23, of the 900 block of Olivet Road, N.E., Washington, D.C., is sentenced by the Honorable Rafael Diaz to 50 years in prison, following his conviction by a jury to six counts of armed robbery (F-8289-02, PSA 502).

FACTS: James Richardson was found guilty on May 22, 2003, by a Superior Court jury of six counts of armed robbery, six counts of possession of a firearm during a crime of violence, carrying a pistol without a license, unregistered firearm, and unlawful possession of ammunition. All of these crimes were committed on December 28, 2002, in the neighborhood surrounding DREAM nightclub in northeast Washington, D.C.

At trial, the government's evidence established that on December 28, 2002, between approximately 1:30 am and 2:25 am, Richardson robbed six nightclub patrons, in three separate incidents. At approximately, 1:30 a.m., two men were walking to their car. Armed with a fully-loaded .9mm semi-automatic handgun, Richardson approached them from behind, got in front and pointed his handgun at them, then ordered them to lie down. Richardson forced the men to give him their money.

Shortly after robbing them, Richardson robbed a single male, as he walked alone to his car. Again, Richardson approached from behind, pointed his pistol at the victim, and ordered him to lie down. This victim put his arms up, but would not lie on the ground. Richardson demanded his money at gun point, and the victim gave the defendant $85. An eyewitness reported the robbery to DREAM security and to the Metropolitan Police department. Meanwhile, Richardson set up his next armed robbery.

At approximately 2:15 a.m., three males were walking to their car when Richardson approached the three men from behind. Richardson got in front of the three men and immediately pointed his .9mm handgun at them. Careful to keep the gun trained on each of the three men, Richardson ordered the men to lie down and give him their money. The men would not lie on the ground, but did throw their money to the ground. Richardson took the money and began to run. One of the victims pursued Richardson on foot. By the time he caught up with Richardson, Metropolitan Police officers had responded to the area and were in the process of detaining Richardson.

The following members of the Metropolitan Police Department rendered commendable assistance: Detectives Michael Murphy and Ingrid Harkins, as well as Officers Jerry Holmes, Malachi Malik, and Bernard Lyons. Within the United States Attorney's Office, commendation goes to Joel Alter, a former member of the litigation support services unit, who provided valuable assistance, as well as Assistant United States Attorneys Florence Pan, who investigated the case, and Terrance Gainer and Joseph Clark, who prosecuted the case at trial.

Akua Smith, of the 6800 block of Standish Drive, Landover, Md., was found guilty on all counts after a jury trial on November 17, 2003, of Sexual Solicitation, Carrying a Pistol without a License, Unregistered Firearms, and Unlawful Possession of Ammunition (F-4028-03, PSA 506).

FACTS: The defendant was arrested on July 9, 2003, after soliciting an undercover police officer for prostitution. Search of his car incident to arrest revealed a 40. Semi-automatic pistol next to the driver's seat. The defendant was the registered owner of the car and alone in the car at the time of arrest. Defense filed a motion to suppress evidence which was denied after a brief hearing.

The defendant called a witness who claimed to be the registered owner of the gun, who testified that she borrowed the defendant's car and must have left the gun inside the car. The defendant claimed that the gun was not his and that he didn't know how it got into his car. He also claimed that he did not offer money for sex.

A gun trace on the weapon was not conducted, and defense counsel did not produce the Maryland Firearms Registration after jury selection. This required last minute investigation of the defense witness who purchased the gun. Frank Morgan was able to provide very helpful information about the witness' prior gun purchases which provided effective material for cross. Fortunately, there was at least one picture that clearly showed the location of the weapon.

AUSA Steven Wasserman prosecuted the case and commended the hard work of members of the Metropolitan Police Department, along with Frank Morgan of the U.S. Attorney's Office Intelligence Unit.

Demetrius Beatty, age 18, of Northeast, Washington, D.C., was sentenced on November 17, 2003, by Judge Russell Canan to a term of five years in prison to be followed by three years of supervised release for the March 28, 2003, crime during which Beatty drove off with the complaining witness's minivan while her sleeping child was still inside. Beatty pled guilty on May 30, 2003, to Robbery and Second-Degree Burglary in connection with the offense (F-1845-03, PSA 510).

FACTS: According to the government's evidence, on March 28, 2003, at approximately 1:15 p.m., the complaining witness was coming home from grocery shopping with her three small children. As she drove her minivan into the 600 block of 12th Street, Northeast, Washington, D.C., she noticed a young man, whom she later identified as the defendant, Demetrius Beatty, walking alone. The complaining witness parked her van in front of her house and took her 1-year-old daughter out of the car, locked the van with her twin sons (then 2) inside, and carried her daughter up to her second floor bedroom in the house, where she placed her in her crib. The complaining witness then went back down to the van to take one of the twin boys out of the van. By this time Beatty had crossed to her side of the street and walked by the complaining witness, who looked right at him and said hello.

After Beatty passed her on the sidewalk, the complaining witness took her son into her house, leaving her second son in the locked van, but the front door open, while she brought the child up to his room and placed him in his bed. As she started to come back downstairs, she noticed someone had entered her house. When she came downstairs, she ran directly into Beatty, who grabbed her, threw her down to the ground, and started patting down her pockets for money. Beatty demanded money and told the complaining witness that he was not going to hurt her kids. The complaining witness told him that she didn't have any money in the house, and that her purse was in the car. Beatty took the complaining witness's car keys from her person, and tried to push her toward the basement. The complaining witness pushed back, and Beatty then pushed her into a nearby powder room. The complaining witness then locked the door, and when she heard Beatty go upstairs, she ran outside to her neighbor's house and told the neighbor to call 911. Both the neighbor and the complaining witness then saw Beatty come out of the complaining witness's house and go toward the passenger side of the car. When Beatty started to go toward the driver's side, the complaining witness, fearing that he would drive off with her son, ran to the van. Beatty started the car as the complaining witness grabbed the side door to try to open it. The door was locked and Beatty drove off, with the complaining witness hanging on. The complaining witness eventually lost her footing and fell to the ground as Beatty drove away in the minivan.

The minivan was found approximately 45 minutes later, parked in the 1500 block of Gales Street, N.E. The toddler was still inside the van, unharmed. Beatty, who lived nearby, was observed by police inside the apartment complex situated between Benning Road and the 1500 Block of Gales Street, N.E., at approximately 4:00 p.m. The complaining witness had given the police a description of her assailant, which matched the clothing and physical description of Beatty. When police approached Beatty, he ran. When subsequently apprehended, the complaining witness positively identified Beatty as the man who broke into her home and stole her minivan.

In announcing today's sentence, U.S. Attorney Howard commended the outstanding investigative work of Metropolitan Police Department Fifth District Officers and Detectives who took immediate action to locate the complaining witness's minivan and child, Fifth District Detectives Carla Brooks, Dexter Martin, and James LaFranchise, Officers Jerry Holmes and Ulysses Delaney, and Mobile Crime Lab Technicians Tony Nwani and Gerald Wills. Finally, Mr. Howard commended the work of victim/witness advocate Yvonne Bryant, paralegal specialist Lesley Slade, legal assistant Taniqueka Brooks, and Assistant United States Attorney Ann Carroll who investigated and prosecuted the case.

Jabari Bishop, age 23, formerly of 1239 Wylie Street, N.E., Washington, D.C., was sentenced today by Superior Court Judge Rafael Diaz to twenty years of incarceration for threatening a neighbor who had called the police on the defendant. Execution of the sentence was suspended by the Court, which then placed Bishop on five years of probation. Bishop was convicted by a Superior Court jury on July 24, 2003, of two counts of Felony Threats and acquitted of one count of Carrying a Pistol without a License and one count of Destruction of Property (F-2278-02, PSA 510).

FACTS: According to the trial testimony, the victim, Mr. Lonnie Jackson, first moved into the 1200 block of Wylie Street, N.E., in the winter of 2000. Mr. Jackson was appalled by the drug dealing, the constant noise at all hours of the night, the garbage strewn throughout the neighborhood and the general lack of safety in the block. All of the problems on the street centered around the Bishop household, located at 1239 Wylie Street, N.E. (PSA 510). Rather than confront his neighbors by himself in the middle of the night, Mr. Jackson began calling the police in an effort to maintain order on the block. In June 2001, the Bishop family discovered that Mr. Jackson had called the police on them numerous times.

On August 22, 2001, Mr. Jackson drove his car home and parked in front of his house at about 11:00 in the evening. Before Mr. Jackson went into his house, he noticed Jabari Bishop, Bishop's half-brother Brian Cabbell, and others standing outside of the Bishop household. Later, at about 2:00 in the morning, Mr. Jackson was awakened by the sound of gunshots. He immediately called the police. In the morning, Mr. Jackson walked out of his house and saw that his car had four flat tires and a number of bullet holes in it. The damage cost more than $1,250.00 to repair. The only eyewitness to the shooting of the car testified that Jabari Bishop ordered a third person to get Bishop's gun from an alley. When the third person returned with the gun, Bishop ordered him to shoot Mr. Jackson's car.

At about 10:00 p.m. on March 16, 2002, Mr. Jackson was walking back to his house after parking his car in a church parking lot more than four blocks away. Mr. Bishop was standing on the corner of 12th and Wylie Streets, saw Mr. Jackson and began yelling at him, "Why do you park your car around the corner, b----!" Mr. Jackson tried to ignore him, but Bishop kept repeating the question. Mr. Jackson finally replied, "Because you shot up my car once, and I don't want you to shoot it up again." Jabari Bishop replied, "Well I know where you park and I'm going to shoot it up again." Mr. Jackson turned to walk away and Bishop called out after him, "I know where you live and I'm going to shoot you too, b----!" Jackson immediately walked into his house and called the police. He identified Jabari Bishop from a photo spread two days later.

In announcing today's sentence, United States Attorney Howard praised the investigative efforts of Metropolitan Police Department Detectives Thomas Austin-Braxton and Kenneth Goldberg from the Fifth District. He also commended paralegal Robyne Griffin-Batson, legal assistant Debra Smith and Assistant United States Attorneys Glenn Kirschner and Jelahn Stewart, who investigated the case, and Susan Rhee Osborne and Robert Reed, Jr., who prosecuted the case at trial.
